To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Janel Richardson. It is my pleasure to recommend her for a Science teaching position at the Junior High or High School level.

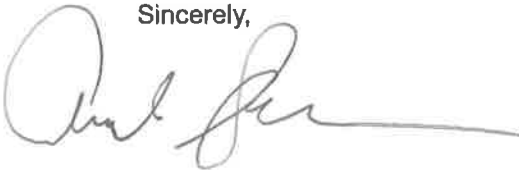

Over the past year, I have worked with Janel as she has been a reliable substitute teacher for myself and others in my department. I truly enjoy working with her and she would be an asset to any school. She is a diligent, hardworking individual who does not hesitate to take the initiative to help in any way she can. She is a self-starter and not afraid to take on new challenges that come her way.

I have also witnessed her positive rapport with students. Her masters degree in Psychology is an asset in her ability to connect with them.

Along with positive interactions with students, Janel is easy to work with and collaborates effectively with colleagues. Her positive and friendly attitude make her an ideal team player.

Please feel free to contact me and I would be happy to discuss my recommendation of Janel Richardson further.

Sincerely,
