To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing in support of Janel Richardson regarding her desire to obtain a position in the teaching profession. Janel is a focused and committed student who I believe would be an asset to your district and/or school.

I am fortunate to work in an accelerated program where students work hard to complete their teaching credential, and are excited about the teaching profession. Ms. Richardson exemplifies the skills needed to be a wonderful instructor.

I met Janel in my course Literacy Methodology for Single Subject Candidates during the Winter 2019 semester. In this class, Janel discovered the need for literacy instruction; assessed a variety of text types; utilized strategies to strengthen students' academic language; and practiced explicit instruction and modeling of literacy skills. In addition, she observed 20-hours worth of secondary classroom instruction, and taught two lessons that incorporated literacy strategies. Janel has a toolkit of reading, writing, speaking, and listening strategies to incorporate into any grade level and can adapt to various learner needs.

Janel is focused, motivated, and conscientious; moreover, her work is meaningful and thoughtful. I was continually impressed with her maturity and commitment to success, as well as her leadership potential, and any school would be lucky to have her as a member of the faculty. Please feel free to contact me if you require further information.

Sincerely,
